the saucon valley band, under the direction of mr. louis mazza, has played an important part in school and community functions. the band officers are preston kuscan, president; robert stuber, vice-president; sally kovacs, secretary; and brenda heffner, treasurer. this year the john philip sousa award winner is bryan gerhab. in addition to the usual halftime performances, the band held, an informal family concert and their spring concert. two newly formed bands are the stage band, directed by robert resetar, and the pep band, directed by preston kuscan. on the band trip to washington, d.c., they saw the u.s. marine band parade.

homecoming

the fifth annual homecoming celebration was held october 24, 1970.

the day was exceptionally joyful for the class of 1971 who won the decoration trophy for the first time. all three classes worked very hard during the weeks preceding the game on their decorations. this year's theme was "panther's are masters, trojans are slaves, by the ending of the game, they'll be dead in their graves."

during halftime festivities, mary jane breininger was crowned homecoming queen by pam hombis, last year's queen. the four other senior girls who served on her court were nancy anders, cindy balum, dee dee shelbo, and connie zorn. alan kozak, senior class president, crowned the queen and presented her with a bouquet of red roses, and a kiss. the whole day was exciting and memorable for all.

the theme of the 1970 christmas vespers, directed by mrs. hazel jones, was "what is christmas?" featuring charlie brown and linus. the senior, sophomore, and christmas tree choruses portrayed the many phases of christmas joy and peace. the boys' chorus and hellertones portrayed the fun and excitement of the christmas season.

"musical potpourri", directed by mrs. hazel jones, was a variety of musical arrangements to suit everyones taste. songs were selected from the musicals "annie get your gun", "camelot", "carousel", "my fair lady", and "the sound of music". mrs. jones was presented with a gift of appreciation from the senior chorus at each production.

on friday, april 23, 1971, the junior class presented "a time for us". the reception was held in bethlehem at the greek orthodox church. the hall was beautifully decorated and created a romantic mood for all. music by the "reign of iron" captivated the dancers for the evening.

at ten o'clock the queen was crowned and her court named. nancy parry was crowned by fred kugler, junior class president. the senior members of the court and their escorts were diane anders and william danyluck; cindy balum and dean bauder; dee dee shelbo and timmy mack; and connie zorn and frank klotz.

junior members were sue anders and richard partlow; richelle geyer and nelson weaver; peggy nadenicheck and daniel green; and beth transue and john peters.

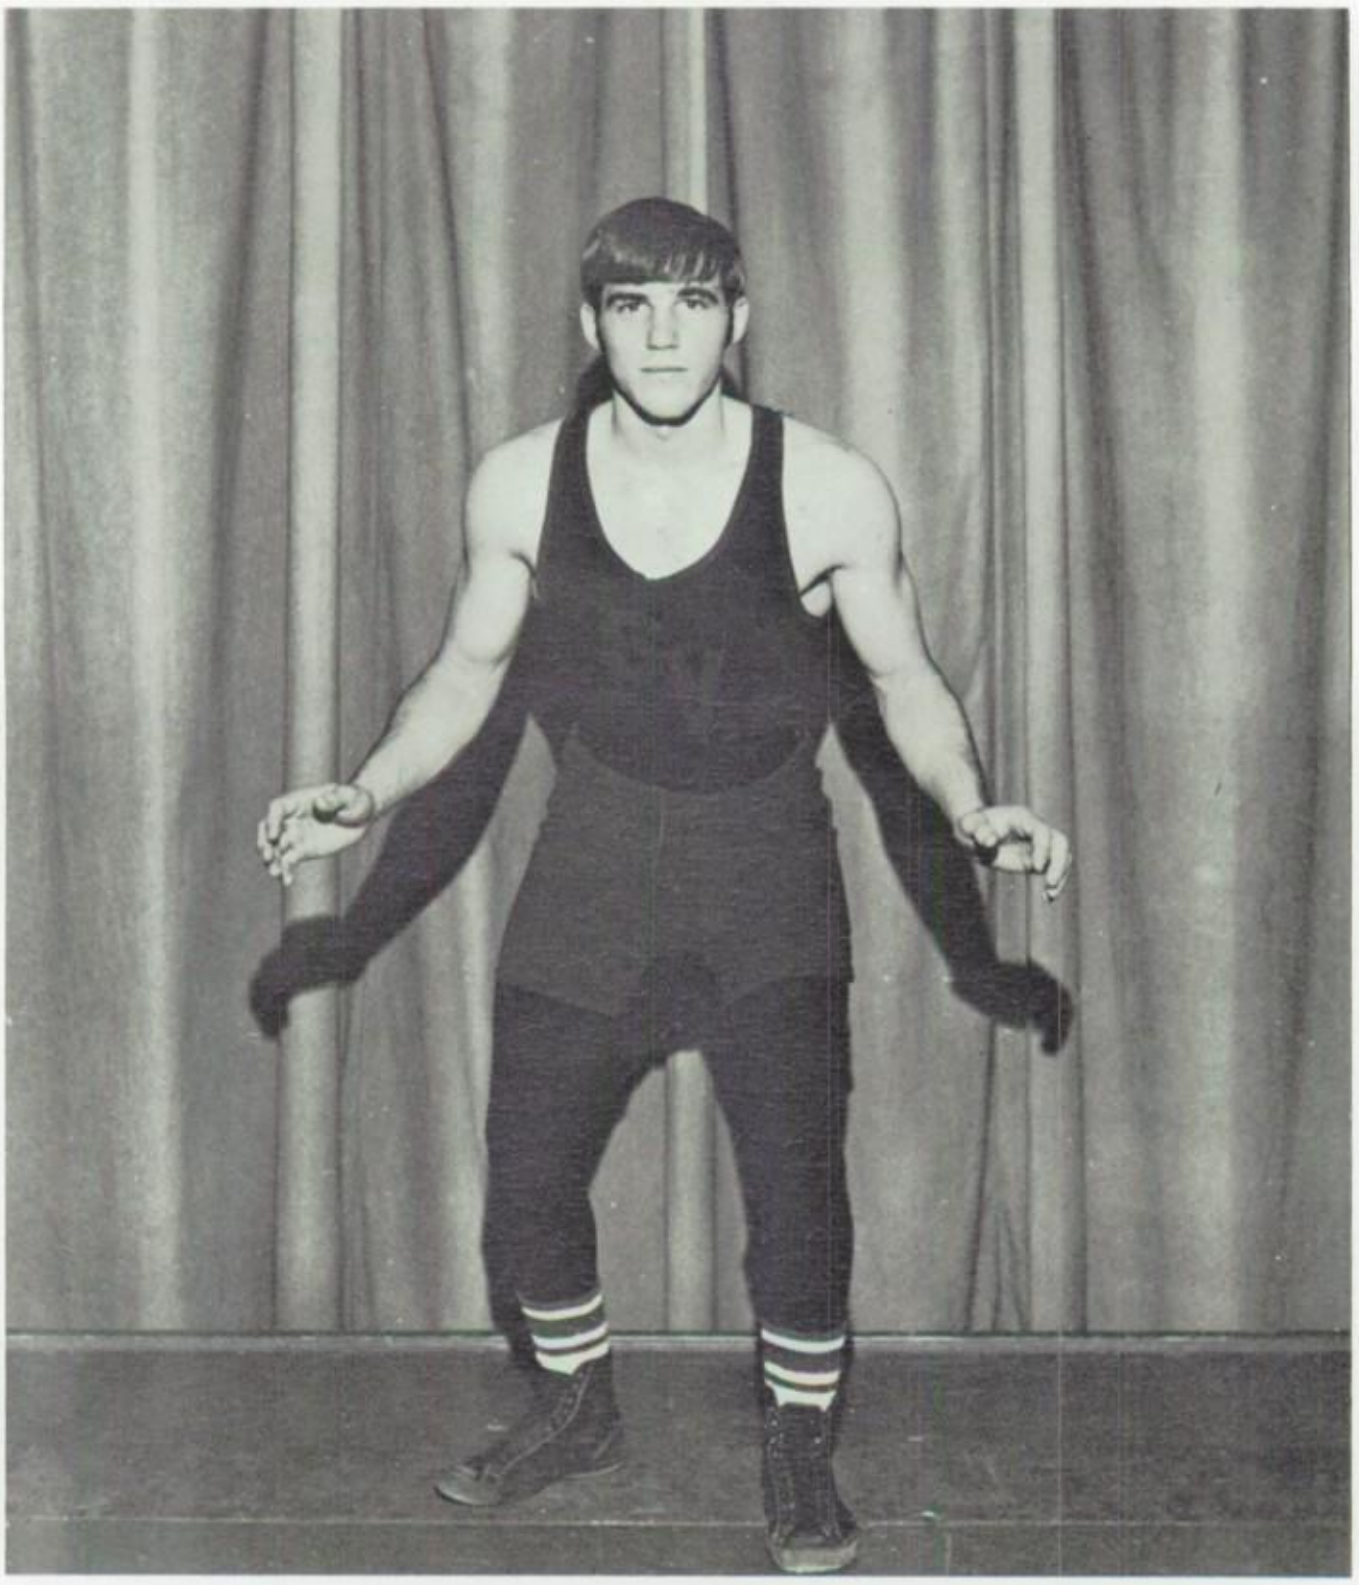
two time state champion 120 lb. class



donald rohn

once again, don rohn has returned as saucon valley's p.i.a.a. state champion. he has the distinction of being saucon valley's only wrestler to win the state title twice. the only mar on don's record was a draw by ernie gonzalez during the liberty meet. rohn later defeated him to win the district 11 championship. if don can repeat the title for a third time next year, he will be one of only 8 who have been three time winners in the state's yearly event.

carla fontana and karen trainor carla, our visiting exchange student from scandiano, italy, came to us on august twenty-first, nineteen hundred and seventy. during her year, carla participated in many sports and was an active member of various clubs. she found hellertown a "typical american town" and got along well with all of the students. the class of '71 sends many good wishes with carla as she returns to italy.

karen, our exchange student from hellertown, went to south africa on january eleventh, nineteen hundred and seventy. she returned a year later leaving behind her south african family and friends and many unforgettable experiences. the class of '71 as well as saucon valley high, is very proud to have karen as its second exchange student.

alma mater

though we journey far asunder
    all through this life,
yet these hearts of yours grow fonder
    all through this life;
for this high school, alma mater,
where we spent our days together,
laugh at stormy days and weather– glad, care-free life.

from our hearts the world can never,
    all through this life,
drive that fondness out forever,
out of this life;
    joys we are in memory keeping,
fruits of school days always reaping, gratitude is never sleeping –
all through this life.

    as we reach the time of parting,
to go through life,
onward, upward we are starting,
    to go through life;
when the task of duty presses,
    and when praise no more caresses, may our high school help and bless us
    all through this life,

class night

old memories
of freshman hazing
pre-game rallies
with bonfire blazing . . .
memories of
weekend dances blend with those of light romances . . .
memories of study hall
and quiet walks
upon the mall . . .
such memories,
fond souvenirs
are ribbon and bow
binding school time years.
